Price subject to change if cat is matted. Matting deemed to tight by groomer will be sent to a veterinarian for the shave. It takes a lot of extra time and experience to use a surgical blade to remove a pelted coat on a cat safely and does cost more. Price will be discussed before owner leaves the animal. We will be able to tell you if we can't groom it safely and should be done at a Vet Hospital where a doctor is on duty. Sometimes a cat must be placed under anesthesia to safely shave it. A cat's skin can tear and be cut very easily when matted and we do not wish to take unnecessary risks to your animal's health.
